

Minnesota Veterinary Medical Association

President

Tim Krienke, DVM

Tim Krienke graduated from the University of Minnesota with his undergraduate degree (summa cum laude) in Biological Science and Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine. After graduation, Tim began working with his uncle, Dr. George Krienke, at the Rice Pet Clinic in Little Canada. In 1991, he purchased the clinic and still owns it today.

Tim and his wife, Kelly have three adult children. He enjoys reading, golfing, participating in music theater and signing in his church's Gospel Choir.
