

Minnesota Veterinary Medical Association

Director

Matt Kruse, DVM

Dr. Kruse graduated from the Iowa State University College of Veterinary Medicine in 1997. He worked as a small animal veterinarian in the Twin Cities for over 16 years. His special interests include dentistry and surgery. He lives with his wife, Heather, son Drew, and daughters Nina and Alexa and our dachshund "Lucy". Matt grew up in Shenandoah, IA, a small rural community in Southwest Iowa. He had a small hobby farm where his passion for animals and veterinary medicine started. From 4-H to helping the local veterinarian with kennels and procedures, he knew it was the right choice for him.

Matt has worked at Cedarview Animal Hospital and Flying Cloud Animal Hospital prior to owning his own clinic. In 2003, he purchased Burnsville Parkway Animal Hospital and continues to practice and manage the hospital. He is an active member of the MVMA, IVMA, AVMA, AVDS and on the MVMF golf committee.

When not seeing patients, he enjoys playing golf, coaching his kids' sports and spending time with family.
